Thanks Tammy for your flexibility.

Linda R is checking times now. I will plan to fly into the city on Wednesday morning so let's pencil start time around noon for our own team, 1:30 for KP? Does that make sense?

It will be Kathy Patrick along with her partner Scott Humphries, with whom Tammy and I met in MPLS.

Yes, ok with me. And, actually, I can be in NY for an earlier meeting if that works out better with schedules. I decided to do this meeting and one other, then go to Minneapolis Thursday morning.
